THE CRANSTON CO.

OFFICE SUPPLIES

CANTEEN WORKER'S POSITION AN INTERESTING ONE

Opportunity Given Norwich Women to Enter Ideal Occupation in Cause of Democracy.

The War Council has made an announcement that it is desirous of securing women workers for canteen service overseas. All women must have an available sum of $500. must be between thirty and thirty-five years of age, and prepared to obey orders of any kind relative to the work which will consist largely in helping to prepare and sell light refreshments to the soldiers. The main idea is to give the men on leave a little of home life and cheer. The work is entirely voluntary on the War Council is in no position to offer salaries. A knowledge of French is helpful, but by no means necessary.

It is hoped that some women living in the district included in Norwich, Franklin, Sprague, Lisbon, New London and the whole of Windham county, will enlist in this service for interesting and useful work for our men in France.

Any one wishing further information may address or telephone Mrs. John D. Hall, 25 Otis street, Norwich, telephone number, 524, or Mrs. Frederick W. Lester, 65 Warren street, Norwich, telephone number 1424.

LIEUT. O'CONNELL VISITS FORMER HOME TOWN

He is Trial Engineer on Large Number of U. S. Crafts.

Lieutenant D. O'Connell, of Brooklyn formerly of Norwich, was in town Thursday visiting his sisters, Mrs. Com and Mrs. John Brooks.

Lieutenant O'Connell was called in to the service at the commencement of the war and has acted as trial engineer on 145 boats, ranging in size from the giant Minnesota built at Groton, to the Sovereign, just delivered by him to the Experimental Station at New London. The Sovereign is of the destroyer type and can make 42 miles per hour. Lieutenant O'Connell will return to Brooklyn Navy Yard upon the completion of his duties with the Sovereign.

Condition Remains the Same.

George W. Beebe of Thimbleville who was taken suddenly ill last Monday evening, remains about the same.

Grand Army day on the Plainville camp ground Thursday dawned threateningly with showers, so that only about 50 veterans were present.

NORWICH TOWN

Miss Susan Beebe Describes Sights in the Yellowstone Region—Local People on Summer Outings—Brief Personal Items.

Mrs. Susan Beebe, formerly of Norwich Town, who is taking a trip through Yellowstone Park, writes a friend uptown, "The buildings are very low. In winter the trolleys and steam cars are heated with stoves. The grainfields look fine, this cool weather (June) is what they need. I saw a lady from Texas yesterday who said that it had rained there but once since 1915, the lakes have dried up and drinking water is hard to get. Later—we have been passing through the Bad Lands of North Dakota and Montana all the afternoon; mountains look like ashes, there are all kinds of queer formations; rolling grows but sage brush.

From the Park—Have ridden a horse over the hills through the sage brush to see the elk. This is a wonderful place. One cannot describe the beauty of the Grand Canyon of the Yellowstone, the sides are all colors of the rainbow and the river below is green as grass, most of the cold water here is green, and some of the hot springs are a beautiful blue. The waiters are college boys and girls; different guests furnish the evening entertainments. A Japanese prince and an English earl and family were recent guests here. Yesterday there was a German spy at our hotel; she was arrested in Mammoth today. There are many soldiers in different camps all through the park.

Beach Outing.

Parties from Norwich Town and Norwich, a number of children among them, were at Atlantic Beach, R. I. Wednesday, finding relief from the heat. On the way it was noted that one or two fields of potatoes were entirely blighted in other fields full of promise the blight is just beginning to show.
